Nagoya University	Bangladesh	Excellent	To visit new places, to meet new people.	Everything was perfect. A well-behaved environment was provided. Lovely bento and beautiful places. I especially enjoyed the Furukawa Art Museum part because I adore French Art.
Nagoya University	Uzbekistan	Excellent	I want to participate in a traditional tea ceremony and deepen my understanding of Japanese culture.	The tour was great. I was impressed with amazing views of temples. I have gained quite useful information about Japanese culture.
Nagoya University	Scotland	Excellent	To explore parts of Nagoya I had not been to and to learn about the history of the area.	The event was extremely well organised, and the tour guide was exceptional, with lots of knowledge of each part of the tour! I would highly recommend this tour to anyone coming to Nagoya and will go to some of the museums again!
Nagoya University	Vietnam	Excellent	I would like to explore Japanese history and traditional culture, especially tea ceremony which I never have been before.	Thank you for having me in the event. This is the first time I participated in a formal tea ceremony in Japan and learned a lot from this event. Through the explanation of the tour guide about these destination and the Tamesaburo Memorial Museum, I obtained knowledge about the improvement and meaning inside every corner of this tour.

Nagoya University	Vietnam	Very Good	I initially wanted to learn more about Nittaiji. I've visited it several times, but this was my first chance to learn more about the temple through a guided tour. After learning more about the program, I was also drawn to the Tamesaburo Memorial Museum. I've always been interested in Japanese tea ceremonies, so this was an opportunity to visit different tea rooms and attend the tea ceremony.	I enjoyed the tea ceremony at the end of the tour the most. The weather was a bit chilly, and we were all a little tired after the walk, so having a warm cup of tea to finish the tour was a perfect touch. The tea and sweets were delicious, as expected from an expert preparation. I also appreciated the explanation of the ceremony, its history, and the intentional design of the tea room. Altogether, these details made my first experience truly unforgettable.
Nagoya University	Philippines	Excellent	I wanted to see the areas of Nagoya which I could visit.	I was shocked to see more of Nagoya. Overall, it was fun. I think that I appreciated the tour because of the explanation and guide.

Nagoya University	Philippines	Excellent	I am currently a research student of Nagoya University under the Language and Cultural Studies. This tour gave me a lot of insights on Japanese culture particularly on architecture, art, religion, cuisine, and tea ceremony.	Wonderful. The temple visits (Nittaiji, Souoji, and Yokiso Villa) was full of information about religion and history around Nagoya. At the Furukawa Art Museum, it was my first time seeing actual works of Van Gogh and Monet, very overwhelming. My favorite part was the tour in Tabesaburo Memorial Museum where we experience Japanese cuisine and partook in the tea ceremony while mesmerizing Japanese architecture and crafts.
Nagoya University	Cambodia	Excellent	To explore Japanese culture and history.	I love this event, I have never seen tea ceremony before.

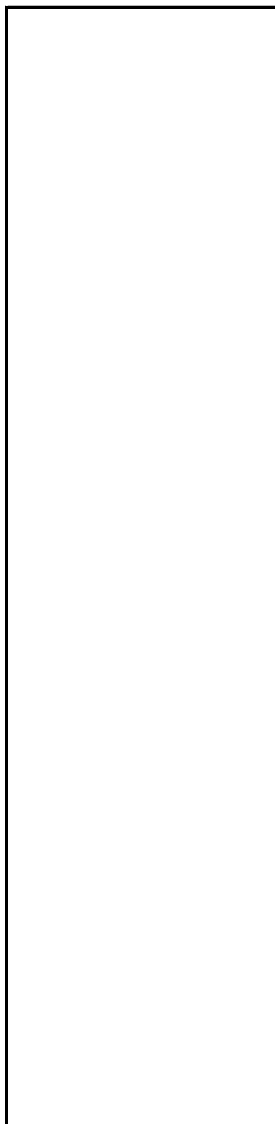

Suggestions

It was perfect. So thank you and good luck!

The event is well-organized and easy to follow.

I hope that the group could be bigger next time. I would also want to see more to explore in Nagoya.

None. The tour was well executed.

Everyone and everything is perfect.
