Nagoya University	Vietnam	Excellent	I was very interested in learning more about the swordsmith village so it really encouraged me to sign up	It was extremely helpful, a great chance for me to learn, everyone on the trip and people from the organizing team was so nice. More to that, lots of Japanese and English mix of explanation was provided, which really helped me with studying the language more, as well as helping feel included in every section of the trip.	I think it was great overall but I really wanted if the trip allocated more time for us to look us the souvenirs in Seki city. Besides that, I think it was a fun experience and I would love to join more if I have a chance.
Nagoya University	Myanmar	Excellent	Japan is rich in culture and want to explore Japanese Swords making which is one of the interesting cultures Japan is belonging	Not just the knowledge on how to make swords has been explored, the connection with other international students who participated in the program has been broadened. I do appreciate Nagoya ryu net for organising such a wonderful event.	I am pleased with the event.
Nagoya University	Thailand	Excellent	To explore Japan and experience Japanese way of life	Staffs are very kind and helpful with fluency in English	It would be nice if we have time to sit together having some tea and coffee while exchanging our
Nagoya University	North Macedonia	Excellent	I am interested in weaponry	I think it was a great event. Nicely organized and comfortable. I would do it again.
Nagoya University	Indonesia	Excellent	I am interested with Japanese culture particularly in how Japanese made Katana	Thank you for allowing me to join this event. This event was run smoothly and on time. The committee of this event was very kind and informative. I really enjoy joined this event.	For the next event, please take more photos and have a talk session to introduce each participant and the committee.

NUPACE, Nagoya University	China	Very Good	want to learn about the traditional Japanese sword-making process; want to see snow!	The event was generally very well organized, and it was very rare to see the knife-casting process, so I'm very grateful to the school for organizing it. However, let me point out a slight shortcoming of the event: I think the park where we saw the snow at the end was a little less active, so we stayed there a little too long in relative terms
Nagoya University	Philippines	Excellent	Learn more about Japanese culture and experience a new place	I'm glad that I joined this event because I was able to learn about the art of sword making and I was able to enjoy the snow in Hirugano. This experience will not be possible without Nagoya Ryugakusei Net so, thank you very very much!
Nagoya University	Ethiopia	Excellent	I am very much interested in Japanese culture and want to know about Japanese history	I found the event well organised and interesting. The fact that it's organised for free is also very helpful for students. I have learned a unique aspect of Japanese culture and history. After the event I started reading related informations online about Japanese swordsmithing and the history associated with it. I believe it's a good way to introduce Japan to international students.
Nagoya University	China	Very Good	For learning Japanese culture	The event of katana is good, and I enjoy it very much. However, I think the event of snow is a little childish. But I like these animals, especially the alpaca. Generally, I am satisfied with this event. Thank you very much.

Nagoya University	中国	Very Good	日本の当地文化を知りたかったです	・日本の歴史文化を知りました、楽しかったです。 ・異国の方々と交流できていい経験でした。	アイスブレイクの部分が あればさらにいいと思います
Nagoya University	Indonesia	Excellent	This event is an opportunity to get to know more about Japanese local wisdom and culture, also I can interact with other international student who also joined this event. Moreover this event also offered us to enjoy beautiful places nearby.	First of all, I would like to thank NagoyaRyuNet for holding this event. I am impressed that the event organization is well-prepared and explained everything to us. All people are humble and enjoy the event so I could say this experience is memorable.	I think the overall event was held very well. I hope that an event like this will still be held in the future, as Japan is very rich in culture and local wisdom.
Nagoya University	Vietnam	Excellent	I want to explore how to made a sword and can see snow in Japan's winter	Everyone is very enthusiastic, the scene is also very beautiful. 100/100 points!	Nothing
Nagoya university	Uzbekistan	Excellent	To have fun and communicate with new people	It was very interesting and amusing event.	Everything was perfect!
Nagoya university	Nigeria	Excellent	I wanted to experience the snow in Japan.	The event was well planned and organized. I had so much fun and it helped relieve me from Laboratory work.	Please continue with this kind of event,
Aichi University of Education	Peru	Excellent	The possibility to learn about one of the greatest traditions of japanese culture such as the art of cutlery and making japanese katanas.	It was a very intersting and educational experience, as well as fun since I had the opportunity to play in the snow with other foreign students.

Nagoya University	China	Excellent	I'd like to make more friends and play with snow.	The snow is really beautiful and the people in this activity are very friendly.
Nagoya University	Sri Lanka	Excellent	Explore the Japanese tradition, culture, and environment. Engage with different kind of people	It was a pleasure for me to participate in that event. I enjoyed it very much. After visiting the sword museum, I got the experience of how Japanese traditional sword-making process. It was my first time visiting the snow play area and I enjoyed it very much. I did some activities also. It was a happy and memorable day in my Japanese diary.	Thank you very much for doing these kinds of activities, I highly appreciate your kind efforts.
Nagoya University	Iran	Excellent	I was very curious to see how Japanese swords are made.	It was a highly educational and enjoyable experience. The leaders were kind, organized, and did an excellent job with translation.	Actually, the entire experience was so good that I don't know what to suggest for improvement! 皆さま、Thank you very much!
